

NATIONAL CODE OF CONDUCT

NATIONAL CODE OF CONDUCT

Introduction

The Rugby League Code of Conduct provides all participants – players, parents, coaches, referees, spectators and officials – with some simple rules that assist in delivering a safe and positive environment to everyone involved in the game.

Within that safe environment, every Rugby League participant has the best chance to enjoy the game. By accepting the standards of behaviour in the Code, we provide opportunities for young boys and girls to grow on the field - we build good players, good citizens and good communities in which Rugby League is a social asset.

I strongly recommend that everyone connected with Rugby League adopts these rules as an essential part of the way they contribute to our great game.

John Grant
Chairman Australian Rugby League Commission

General Principles

Participants in the game of Rugby League include:

All registered players; accredited persons - coaches, first aid and Leaguesafe Officers; referees and touch judges; Officials - club, League or Association staff and volunteers, ground managers and duty officials; parents/carers of players, sponsor representatives and club supporters; members of the general public attending as spectators.

Participants are encouraged and expected to:

- show positive acts of sportsmanship, discouraging all instances of foul or illegal play, or acts of violence, both on and off the field;
- demonstrate the greatest levels of respect, protecting the rights, dignity and worth of every person regardless of their gender, ability / disability, sexual orientation, cultural background or religion;
- lead by positive example, and condemn the use of recreational and performance enhancing drugs and doping practices; their use endangers the health of players and is contrary to the concept of fair play;
- celebrate the “good news” stories, and understand that cyber-bullying, which includes negative or demeaning comments, status posts, personal messages or emails, is deemed as a serious form of harassment;
- accept that the integrity of the sport is of paramount importance, therefore, no coach, player, Club official or match official is allowed to participate, or be directly or indirectly involved in any way, in gambling in relation to matches/competitions in which they are involved or directly linked.

By adhering to the National Code of Conduct at every Rugby League activity, you embrace the game’s four key values of EXCELLENCE, INCLUSIVENESS, COURAGE AND TEAMWORK.

CODE OF CONDUCT – PLAYER

- Be a good sport. Respect all good play whether from your team or the opposition and shake hands with, and thank, the opposition players and officials after the game – win, lose or draw.
- Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit.
- Always respect the referee's decision.
- Never become involved in acts of foul play.
- Honour both the spirit and letter of the competition rules and live up to the highest ideals of ethics and sportsmanship; avoid gamesmanship, and respect the traditions of the game.
- Never engage in disrespectful conduct of any sort including profanity, sledging, obscene gestures, offensive remarks, trash-talking, taunting or other actions that are demeaning to other players, officials or supporters.
- Care for and respect the facilities and equipment made available to you during training and competition.
- Safeguard your health; don't use any illegal or unhealthy substances.
- Recognise that many officials, coaches and referees are volunteers who give up their time to provide their services. Treat them with the utmost respect.
- Do not bet or otherwise financially speculate, directly or indirectly, on the outcome or any other aspect of a Rugby League match or competition in which you are involved.

Endorsement

Players at every level of our great game have a responsibility to always play within the Laws, and to compete with respect and sportsmanship.

Rugby League is a fantastic game, made even better when players, officials and fans all work together to make a positive, safe and respectful playing environment.

I fully endorse the player's section of the game's Code of Conduct.

Best wishes,

*Cameron Smith,
Melbourne Storm, Queensland, Australian Captain*

CODE OF CONDUCT – COACH

- Actively discourage foul play and/or unsportsmanlike behaviour by players.
- Seek to maximise the participation and enjoyment of all players regardless of ability; avoid the tendency to over-use a talented player; treat all players as equals, regardless of their talent.
- Show concern and caution towards all sick and injured players. Follow the advice of a physician and/or sports trainer to the letter when determining when an injured player is ready to recommence training or playing.
- Teach players that an honest effort and competing to the best of their ability is as important as victory.
- Maintain appropriate, professional relationships with players at all times.
- Maintain a thorough knowledge of the Laws of the Game and keep abreast of current coaching methods; maintain or improve your current accreditation level.
- Always consider the health, safety and welfare of the players.
- Teach young players to realise that there is a big gap between their play and the professional game; do not coach them as if they are professionals.
- Ensure that your coaching reflects the level of the competition being played; do not be a “winner-at-all-cost” coach.
- As coach, conduct yourself at all times in a manner, and in all situations, that shows leadership, respect for the game of Rugby League and respect for all those that are involved in the game – the players, officials, the fans, the parents, the referees and the media.

Endorsement

As a coach, you have a particular responsibility to ensure that, through your words and actions, you strive to build the positive character of your players, as well as their skills.

You also have to appreciate and maintain the traditions, image and integrity of the game.

Be gracious in victory and accept defeat with dignity, and remember to always promote sportsmanship over gamesmanship.

Good luck!

Tim Sheens

Coach – Australia & four-time Premiership-winner

Remember that junior players participate for pleasure and mateship. Winning is only part of the fun.

CODE OF CONDUCT – MATCH OFFICIALS

- Be impartial! Also, be consistent, objective and courteous.
- Place the safety and welfare of the players above all else; be alert to minimise dangerous physical play, fair or foul, especially in junior matches.
- Accept responsibility for all actions taken.
- Avoid any form of verbal contact with coaches, team officials, parents and spectators during play.
- Avoid any situation which may lead to a conflict of interest, both on and off the field.
- Maintain an appropriate level of fitness for the standard of game at which you are officiating.
- Condemn all and every instance of unsportsmanlike, foul or unfair play.
- Set a good example by the way you dress, speak and act towards players, coaches, officials, parents and spectators.
- Show concern and caution towards sick and injured players.
- Officiate to the age and/or experience of the players.

CODE OF CONDUCT – TEAM & CLUB OFFICIALS

- Uphold the integrity of the game of Rugby League at all times;
- Always act in a sportsmanlike manner, respecting opposition players, team and club officials and spectators;
- Make decisions in the best interests of the game of Rugby League;
- Place the safety and welfare of players as the top priority;
- Accept responsibility for all decisions made.

Endorsement

Like players and coaches, Match Officials play a vital role in the establishment of a safe, friendly and conflict-free environment on the field. Your actions must be beyond reproach, maintaining the integrity of the Laws, the game, and yourself.

By demonstrating a positive attitude and promoting good sporting behaviour, referees are an integral part of every match played across the country.

All match officials have a responsibility to apply their thorough knowledge of the Laws consistently, and to communicate with players in a fair and measured manner.

NRL, State of Origin and Test match Referee.*

Referees are the key to the successful application of the Safeplay Code (up to and including 15 years) in Junior Rugby League.

CODE OF CONDUCT – SPECTATOR/PARENT

- Condemn all violent or illegal acts, whether they are by players, coaches, officials, parents or spectators.
- Respect the referee's decisions – don't complain or argue about decisions during or after a game.
- Behave! Unsportsmanlike language, harassment or aggressive behaviour will not be tolerated.
- Encourage players to play by the rules and to respect opposition players and officials.
- Never ridicule or scorn a player for making a mistake – respect their efforts.
- Understand that sport is part of a total life experience, and the benefits of involvement go far beyond the final score of a game.
- Participate in positive cheering that encourages the players in the team you are supporting; do not engage in any cheering that taunts or intimidates opponents, their fans or officials.
- Remember that children participate in Rugby League for their own enjoyment, not yours!
- At all times, follow the directions of the Ground Manager and/or other duty officials.
- Never arrive at a Junior League game under the influence of alcohol, never bring alcohol to a Junior League game and only drink alcohol, if it is available, in a responsible manner in the designated licensed area.

Endorsement

I've always loved Rugby League - going to the games and supporting my favourite teams. But I don't love it when fans get unruly or cause trouble on the sidelines.

As a spectator, be sure to do the right thing. Enjoy the game and let the players know that win or lose, you support their efforts.

As a parent, lead by example, promote good sportsmanship and be a positive role model for your children.

I fully support this Code of Conduct.
